I understand that this is a request for reservation and that receipt of this application does not guarantee me a spot on the requested weekend. I further understand that the Walk to Emmaus is an opportunity to sit at Jesus' feet for 72 hours. To that end, I will plan to be at the walk site from Thursday evening until Sunday evening. I will leave all diversions such as cell phones, cameras and other electronic devices at home. In humility and dependence on God, I will be cooperative, teachable and loving to all others I encounter on the walk.

SPONSORSHIP GUIDELINES

When you have a prospective pilgrim in mind, follow these suggested steps, keeping in mind that the weekend is for those who are actively participating in a local congregation. The Florida Sunrise Emmaus Board follows The Upper Room recommendation that no more than 6 people from one church per Walk will be accepted. Completed applications (pilgrim & sponsor sections) will be processed in the order they are received.

1. PRAY: Prayer should be focused on how this person can become a more vitally alive Christian in helping bring God's kingdom into his/her natural environment rather than on how to get this person to attend the weekend.
2. EQUAL COMMITMENT RULE: Husbands and wives should make an equal commitment to attendance on the Walk. Reasons why this is important: (a) Emmaus can indirectly strengthen the spiritual bond in a marriage; (b) it guards against the Emmaus experience becoming a separating influence in a marriage. If the pilgrim's spouse does not want to attend the Walk to Emmaus at this time, a written statement from the pilgrim's pastor is required. Applications without a written statement from the pilgrims' pastor will be considered for acceptance by the Board of Directors of Florida Sunrise Emmaus.
3. THE INVITATION: Make an appointment to make the invitation. If married, be sure to include the spouse. Make it a personal invitation to enrich their faith and thus become a more effective disciple. After sharing your own experience, make sure the person knows your invitation is to a more vitally alive relationship with Jesus Christ, not just to attend a weekend. You should carefully explain each of the following: (a) reunion groups, (b) monthly gatherings, and (c) renewed interest in serving one's own church.
4. APPLICATION: Assist the pilgrim in completing the registration form, answering any questions they may have. If married, each spouse must fill out a separate form. Have the form signed by the pilgrim's pastor. Later fill out the sponsor's form and mail both to Florida Sunrise Emmaus as quickly as possible. If all blanks are not filled on both forms, they will be returned as incomplete. Operating expenses for the Emmaus weekends are paid out of love by the Florida Sunrise Emmaus Community. If you are a sponsor, please contribute what you feel comfortable donating and whatever amount will not place a financial burden on you but please donate something. A weekend will typically cost $125 per person. Make checks payable to Florida Sunrise Emmaus.
5. CONTINUING PREPARATION: Continue to pray for and stay close to your pilgrim to answer any questions that may arise. If the person's pastor has not attended, you will want to explain the Walk to Emmaus and enlist prayers and support. Help the pastor to visualize how this spiritually renewed person can be used in the ministry of the church.
6. WEEKEND REPONSIBILITIES: If the pilgrim has a family, make sure you pay attention to them during the weekend. The team will take good care of your pilgrim. It is very important that you personally bring the pilgrim to Send Off. Candlelight is often the highlight of the weekend, so plan to be there to support your pilgrim, and make sure the spouse attends if they have been on their Walk. At Closing, be ready to hug and welcome your pilgrim to the Community. Plan to return them to their home at the end of the weekend.
7. FOURTH DAY: Assist your pilgrim to get into a Reunion Group. Invite them to come to yours, or advise them of others you are aware. This is perhaps the most important aspect of remaining active in Emmaus. Offer to bring your pilgrim to the next few monthly Gatherings following their Walk. Make sure the pilgrim goes back to their church with an enthusiastic, positive, supportive attitude. Help the person understand how the Community functions and explain ways they can serve. Help them to remember a Community is committed to recruiting strong church leaders for the purpose of strengthening the local church and the Walk is not a hospital where every human ill can be cured. Help them discern the people who would respond to a weekend of love and thus become more vitally alive in their church, home, vocation, and community. Help them with all steps of sponsoring others the first time through.
